Patient Record Sample
This document describes a clinical trial for hypertension treatment.
The study included 120 patients aged 40 to 65.
Primary outcome: reduction in systolic blood pressure after 12 weeks.
Results showed an average reduction of 14 mmHg.
Adverse events were mild and included headache and dizziness.